

This week at FPC

August 18-August 24, 2022

A congregational meeting will be Sunday, August 21, 2022 as well as a reception honoring the Watson family in the Fellowship Hall immediately after worship.

Dear Friends,

Shakespeare said, "Parting is such sweet sorrow." For me, you all, the congregation, are that sweetness. I am so thankful for the five years of being your pastor. I didn't plan for our ending now any more than I planned our beginning in 2017. This is the work of the Holy Spirit. FPC has been my seventh installed pastorate and perhaps my last. In Montreat starting next weekend, I am taking a class in transitional ministry, often called interim ministry. Only God knows for sure what I will be doing next, but that is enough.

We have things to celebrate together, including your response to the challenges of Covid. Ministry looks quite different now than it did prior to the pandemic. I know that you will discover the path you will take next under your new leadership and the guidance of the Holy Spirit. You have an incredibly talented Interim Associate Pastor as well as a great staff to assist you on your journey. I admire them, and I am grateful to them. I pray that the coming time of discernment will be fruitful, a time of spiritual growth.

I need to take a moment and define our relationship moving forward. I previously agreed to perform two weddings early next year, both of which are out of town. The session and the presbytery have authorized me to officiate. With only these exceptions, I will no longer function as your pastor after August 31st. I will continue to love you all and pray for you all. I will not perform nor participate in any other weddings, funerals, sacraments, pastoral care, fellowship, or other functions here at FPC. All of this is part of our Separation Guidelines for Pastors which you can read on our presbytery website.

Thank you for the opportunity to be your pastor. I am glad that God brought us together. It has been both an honor and a rich privilege to serve you. I will leave you with the exhortation of Paul to the church in Philippi:

"Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you."

In Christ, Ron
