

This week at FPC

July 9 — July 15 2020

Dear Friends,

The session has called for a congregational meeting on July 19th at 9:45 a.m., immediately following the 9 a.m. service that morning. The purpose of the meeting is twofold. The first purpose is to agree to the terms of sale of what is known as the Bonecutter Island property, located east of Silver Springs. Many years ago, this property was donated to the church. We now have a buyer to purchase the property for $85,000. The congregation must give its consent for this transaction to be completed. The second purpose of the meeting is for the annual election of the nominating committee for the church.

According to our rules, we must have 60 people for a quorum, which is 10% of our 600 or so members.

You can be a part of this quorum in four ways. The first way is to come to church on July 19th. The second way is to join the zoom meeting by computer (instructions will follow). The third way is to join the zoom meeting by phone. The fourth way is to drive your car to the grass lot behind the fellowship hall and flash your headlights when it is time to vote. We will try to make the meeting as brief as possible, but we need your participation to sell the property! I hope you can join in one of these four ways.

You will be hearing this announcement a few more times. I apologize in advance for the repetition, but we need to get that quorum on July 19th, Sunday, 9:45 a.m.

Jimmy Cazin, our consultant for youth and contemporary worship, is finally out of the hospital in Texas. He is at home recovering now and still needs your prayers. We are thankful to have Jimmy recovering from Covid-19.

Peace, Ron
