

This week at FPC March 25—March 31, 2021

Dear Friends, the One Great Hour of Sharing offering has been collected since the end of World War II by Protestant denominations in the United States. We continue this tradition even today and will receive this offering on Sunday for those who come in person. You may also give to the One Great Hour of Sharing by mail. Just simply mark your envelope or check one great hour.

From our denominational website:

"The three programs supported by One Great Hour of Sharing - Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, the Presbyterian Hunger Program, and Self-Development of People - all work in different ways to serve individuals and communities in need. From initial disaster response to ongoing community development, their work fits together to provide people with safety, sustenance, and hope."

Thank you for your generosity. Join us in praying for one another, for our congregation, and for our world which is still struggling to come out of its coronavirus tailspin. We are strong together in the Lord.

Remember that we have services Palm Sunday at 10:00 a.m., Maunday Thursday at 6:00 p.m., and Easter Sunday at 10:00 a.m. We are not having a good Friday service in person this year, but you are invited to come into the sanctuary from 12:00 noon to 3:00 p.m. on Good Friday to pray. (Please exercise social distancing and mask wearing). We will have an online Good Friday service which will be available at 11:00 a.m. on Good Friday.

Peace,
Ron
