

This week at FPC September 2—September 8, 2021

Soon it's Labor Day weekend, so I'm thinking about work. I've held a lot of different jobs from firefighter to shoe salesman to custodian and licensed mutual funds sales. As a gospel minister I've served four churches, been a chaplain, and worked in stewardship. I like to learn new things and am proud of the certificates and licenses I've accumulated over the years.

I watch my adult children as they navigate different jobs, whether moving up the hierarchy at a credit union or hopping through different jobs in metal fabrication. My son the welder said he has learned something at every stop along the way. God has given us all different traits and interests, how we expand on them and how much knowledge we gather is up to us.

This weekend is a time to think about work, workers, employers, and colleagues; it is also a time to be grateful for all the volunteers and staff at our church. God has given me many different opportunities, I'm joy-filled that God has placed me here, now.

New Sunday Morning Bible Study

It's been a long time since there has been a Sunday morning Bible study... February or March of last year. Beginning September 12 from 9:00-9:50 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall we will begin a 7-week look at "What Christians Believe and Why" using the Apostles' Creed and our Bibles to better understand why the Apostles' Creed has been used in church worship services worldwide for centuries. Dale Ambler, retired Presbyterian pastor and relatively new to the Ocala area and our church, will be facilitating this discussion group with an emphasis on letting God lead all who participate in understanding and thinking more deeply about the 110 words that are a regular part of our worship.

Like our Sunday morning worship service, we will be wearing masks in the Fellowship Hall for this discussion group in order to maintain the safety of those present. So, here is your checklist of what to bring for Sunday, September 12 at 9:00 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall: *Mask *Pencil or Pen *Bible

The First Presbyterian Phone Prayer Chain

This ministry is a vital part of First Presbyterian Church. It is greatly appreciated by those it serves. Prayers are being heard and answered daily!

Anyone who would like to join is welcome. It's a wonderful way to feel more connected and to serve your church and the Lord. All you need is a phone.

Come join us! First Presbyterian Deacons

FPC's church library is available for your use and we encourage you to see if there is something you may be interested in.

There are over 3,000 books in fiction, non-fiction, bible references and commentaries, prayer, family relationships, health, death & grieving. There are books by popular authors like MacArthur, Lucado, Barclay, John Grisham, Mary Higgins Clark and collections of novels in a series from Jan Karon and Terry Blackstone.

We also have many children's books available and are accepting donations of them and videos. Stop in and relax or read books to your children or grandchildren. Even take them home for a while. We would love to see you there.

Thanks and God Bless, your church librarians, Joe and Cheryl Lara

FPC's Bike Rally and Picnic—Sunday, Sept 19 at 5:00 p.m.

Bring your bicycle and join us for a ride around Ocala Historic District. We will start and finish at the sports field, with a post ride hot dog picnic. Not a cyclist? Come for the picnic around 6!
