

Today FPC June 30, 2020

Dear Friends,

We will be having communion virtually and in person this Sunday. The instructions on virtual communion have been previously given out but can be summed up rather easily. Please have juice of the grape and bread for all who are participating in your house. If no juice of grape is available (juice or wine), use water. Have these in moderate amounts in small containers.

For those who will come to church in person this week, you will need to make a reservation by Friday. Also you will be given a container with both bread and juice in it that you will consume upon leaving the fellowship hall. We are doing this out of an abundance of caution.

As we prepare to celebrate our freedom, let us remember how precious our right to assembly is and yearn for the day we can gather as we did before the virus.

We understand that our friend and colleague Rev. Jimmy Cazin is improving, though he is still in the hospital in Texas. Please keep him in your prayers

Yours in Christ,
Ron Watson
Pastor

Thank You!

Thanks to everyone who brought food, hygiene products, and monetary donations to our Drive By Food Drive for Interfaith yesterday. We were able to donate 1,165 pounds of goods and over $250 in monetary donations! It was a great opportunity for us to help our community as well as have some socially distant fellowship.

Thanks to all the youth and adult volunteers who came out to help collect and deliver everything to Interfaith:

Jim Yancey, David Guest, Robyn Guest, Yancey Guest, Brooke-lynn Gilkes, Caroline Schlenker, Maren Kimball, Caroline Kimball, JJ Albright, Joshua Vasquez, Hope Runyon, Faith Runyon, and Grant Grodi.

Thanks to Pastor Ron for showing up for support, and an extra thanks to Kay Yancey and Casey Miller for Coordinating and putting the food drive together. We look forward to doing another drive-by food drive in the near future.
